

GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION FOR THE EINO J. AND ELEANOR S. ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

HISTORY & PURPOSE:

Eino J. and Eleanor S. Anderson, by their Wills, established an education trust. The funds of this trust are to assist deserving young men and women of Owls Head, Knox County, Maine, in obtaining education beyond high school level, including post-graduate degrees such as Master's and Doctorate Degree Programs.

PROCESS:

An awarding committee shall recommend to the Trustees the selections which in their judgment shall be proper according to the purpose of the scholarship and the criteria set out by the Wills. The recommendations will be reviewed by the Trustees regarding conformance with the purpose and eligibility requirements.

ELIGIBILITY:

To be eligible, those receiving scholarships must be taking post-secondary level training or education at public or private colleges, universities, vocational or professional schools that are pre-approved as complying with I.R.S. regulations governing such grants. The education may be part-time or full-time.

Recipients must be residents of Owls Head for a period of not less than three years immediately prior to the date of receiving any award or grant hereunder.

The recipients must show promise of being able to benefit from further education beyond secondary level. They must demonstrate:

1. Good character;
2. Good citizenship;
3. Need;
4. Ambition;
5. A student who in the opinion of the awarding committee shows scholastic promise regardless of grades.

Deadline: The application must be received by the Trustee
By April 30 of each year.
